

Cobden Self Storage and Laundromat

Competitive Pricing and Excellent Service

Cobden Self Storage is a relatively new business established in Cobden to offer a service to people and businesses requiring:

- Short term storage for household effects when shifting house or building renovations
- Storage of archived business papers not requiring regular access, but needing storage to meet business regulations
- Storage of anything requiring a secure temporary location.

Cobden Laundromat has recently relocated to new and more amenable premises at 42 Victoria Street, which are co-located with Cobden Self Storage.

For a convenient location near the centre of town this is the place to do your laundry at very competitive prices.
